Function Design

Topic: The topic of this website is about “Volunteer”.

Function:

The functions of this website are divided into five parts:

1. Homepage: a general introduction to what is volunteer, what is the spirit of volunteerism. It also introduces the purpose of the website so that visitors can have a general understanding and attract their attention.
2. Volunteerism: First, an overview of volunteerism is given. Secondly, the volunteer spirit of "dedication, fraternity, assistance, advance" these four connotations are respectively introduced.
3. Volunteer story: This paper introduces the volunteer story in the volunteer activity of welcoming the freshmen in 2020 in Southwest Jiaotong University.
4. Volunteer activities: This paper introduces the recruitment information of volunteers for the 31st Summer Universiade in Chengdu in 2021.
5. Voluntary organizations: China Youth Volunteers Association, International Volunteer Organization and Southwest Jiaotong University Youth Volunteers Association are introduced.

Comparison

Compare with similar types of websites: China Youth Volunteer Network (<http://www.zgzyz.org.cn/>).

1. Advantages: This website explains in detail what volunteerism is. The recruitment of volunteers for the 2021 Universiade in Chengdu was also introduced. Three different volunteer organizations are also introduced.
2. Disadvantages: The website of CYV contains a greater variety of content, and the navigation bar is more finely divided. In addition, the text and picture arrangement is also more beautiful and logical.

Accessibility

The web pages have been gray-scale tested. And each image has some explanatory text around it or on it.
